Yesterday morning at the residence of Mr. Samuel Yates Browne, in Dinwiddie street, at the early hour of 7 o'clock, one of Portsmouth's most successful young physicians, Dr. Otto Christian August Bindewald, led to the hymeneal altar, Miss Clarine Eleasa Browne, the Rev. Father Thomas J. Brady officiating, according to the ritual of the Catholic Church.

A beautiful arch of flowers had been artistically and attractively arranged, under which the young lady and gentleman were made one in the presence of many friends and relatives of the high contracting parties.

Miss Browne was attired in a becoming traveling dress of green broadcloth, with hat and gloves, and carried a cluster of white chrysanthemums. Her maid of honor was Miss Maud Billosly, who wore brown broadcloth, also carrying chrysanthemums. Two little ribbon girls, Sarah Browne and Cecile Beale, wore costumes of white and yellow organdie. The groom and his best man, Dr. O. F. Byrd, wore black cutaway coats, light trousers and pearl gloves.

SENATOR CALL'S CHARGES.

PRONOUNCE AN INSULT TO FLORIDA LEGISLATURE.
(By Telegram to Virginian-Pilot.) Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 29.—As the charges filed by ex-Senator Call against the Florida Legislature were so widely published throughout the United States, stating that Senator Taliaferro was elected to the United States Senate by corrupting the Florida Legislature, a representative of the Associated Press sought an interview with Senator-elect Taliaferro, but he treated the charges with silent contempt. In order to inform the public at large as to the truth of the charges interviews have been secured from those in a position to speak with authority.

State Senator H. H. McCreary, one of Call's leaders in 1897 and one of the leading opponents of Senator Taliaferro in the Legislature in 1899, says: "There was no cleaner or more gentlemanly contest. Senator Taliaferro's victory was due to his superior generalship and Senator Pasco's overconfidence. The charges of Senator Call are an insult to the Florida Legislature and to the State, and the United States Senate should treat them with the contempt they deserve."

Hon. Frank Adams, president of the Florida Senate, denounces the charges and pronounces them baseless.

Hon. Robert McNamee, Speaker of the House, says the contest was the cleanest ever conducted in the State of Florida, and that Call's charges are buncombe for some ulterior political move yet to be disclosed.
